Last chance to have your say on the emerging new Local Plan

During the autumn of 2016, the Council consulted with the public on the Preferred Options draft of the Local Plan which sought to recognise and tackle key issues within the Borough. The Council had a good response from members of public, as well as key stakeholders including local businesses and other organisations.

Having taken stock of the comments received last year, as well as taking into account further evidence that has been produced over the course of the past twelve months, the Council is now seeking further comment from the public and key stakeholders on the Pre-Submission Local Plan, up to 2031.

The consultation on the Pre-Submission Local Plan document began on Monday, 6 November, 2017 and will conclude on Monday, 18 December, 2017 at 5pm. The document is available in a range of formats and at a number of publicly accessible locations throughout the Borough, as well as electronically on the Council's website.

What will happen to my comments?

Once this final consultation has concluded, the Council will collate all of the submissions received and submit them, together with the Submission Draft Local Plan, to the Planning Inspectorate early next year.

The Council then expects the draft document to be independently examined in Spring / Summer 2018, and finally, pending approval by the Planning Inspectorate, the Council hopes to adopt the new Local Plan by the Summer 2018.

For further details, please visit the Council's website at www.oadby-wigston.gov.uk/pages/planning_consultations. If you would like further information about the Local Plan or would like to be notified about upcoming planning consultations please email your details to planningpolicy@oadby-wigston.gov.uk.

Residents' Forums and Community Engagement

Oadby & Wigston Borough Council has established three Resident Forums representing every ward in the Borough. The three Forums are: Oadby, Wigston and South Wigston. They were established to give residents the chance to:

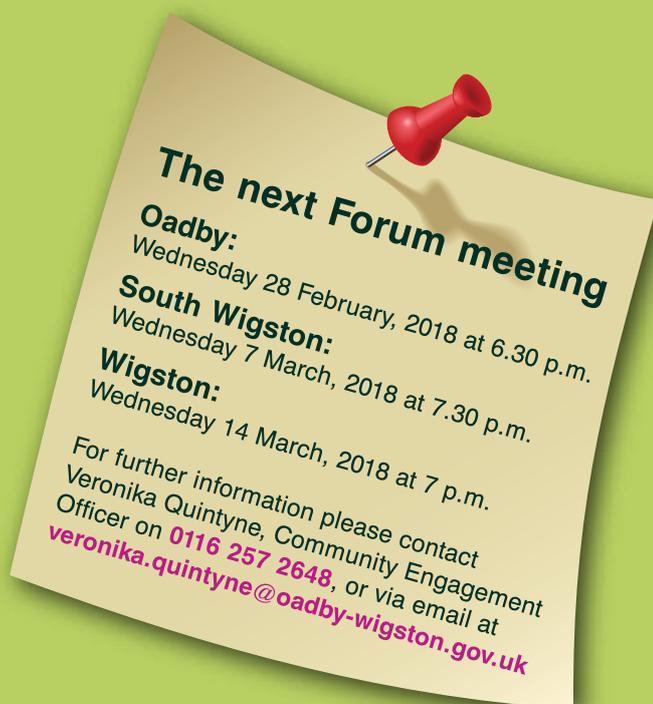

- find out more about local services
- put forward views about local issues
- find solutions to local problems
- help make the Council and other services work better for the benefit of everyone in the whole Borough.
- enable residents to participate and be involved in decision making.

Can I attend a Forum?

Each Forum is chaired by an Elected Member (Councillor). The attendance is made up of local people, Elected Members, groups and organisations and other partners that are active in the Borough.

Each Resident Forum meets quarterly, on an evening and everyone is welcome to attend. The Forums provide a half hour time slot for residents to speak confidentially to local Councillors and the Police before the full meeting begins. Oadby and Wigston Council offers each forum support and administers funding.

So why not come along to your local Forum and tell us what you would like to see improved in your area. Ultimately, It's all about being able to make a difference to where you live, work, rest and play.

Save time, do it online

New online options are being introduced for Oadby & Wigston residents, offering a wider choice for requesting Council services electronically.

MyAccount has been launched by Oadby & Wigston Borough Council for all residents eligible in the Borough to sign up and take advantage of what the service has to offer.

MyAccount

Residents who register for MyAccount will be able to view their Council Tax accounts to check their current balance, any discounts and exemptions awarded and payments made in the last three years.

Residents who are receiving Housing Benefit and Council Tax Support and who register for MyAccount will be able to view their entitlements, payments and awards made in the last three years.

Creating an account is easy and takes a few minutes; all you need to get started is an email address.

Save time, do it online

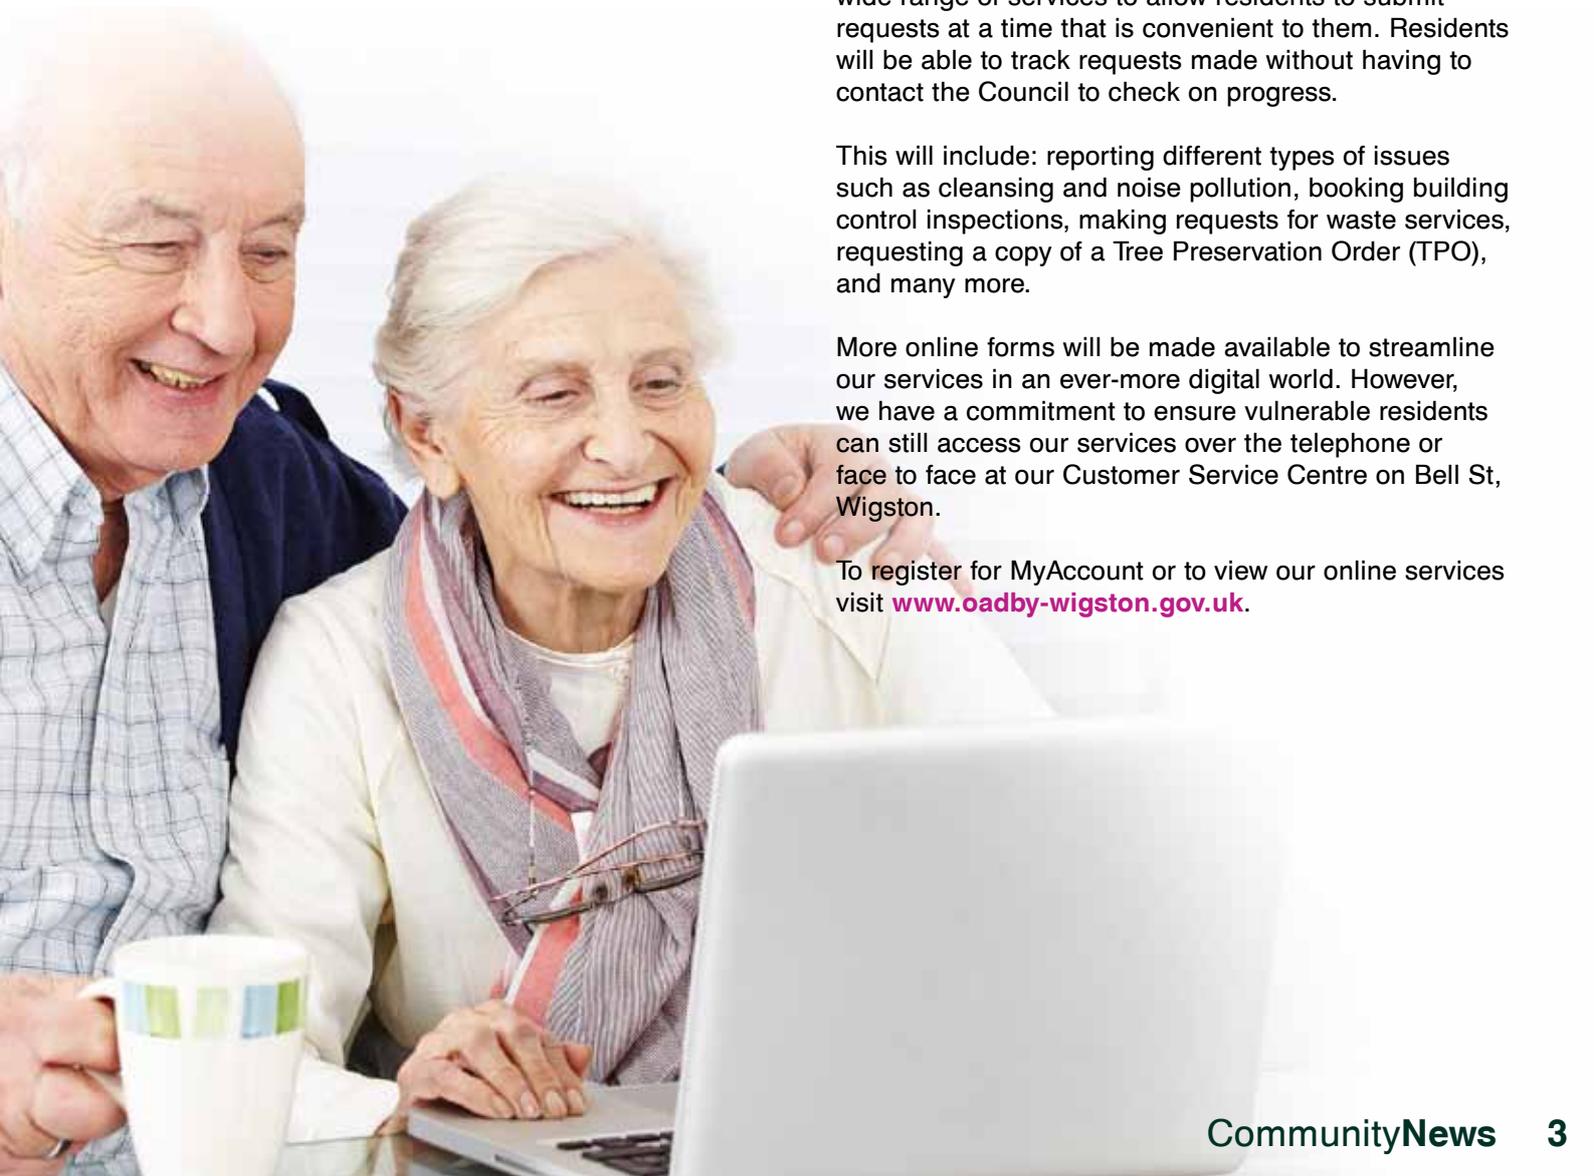

Online forms

The Council is also launching online forms across a wide range of services to allow residents to submit requests at a time that is convenient to them. Residents will be able to track requests made without having to contact the Council to check on progress.

This will include: reporting different types of issues such as cleansing and noise pollution, booking building control inspections, making requests for waste services, requesting a copy of a Tree Preservation Order (TPO), and many more.

More online forms will be made available to streamline our services in an ever-more digital world. However, we have a commitment to ensure vulnerable residents can still access our services over the telephone or face to face at our Customer Service Centre on Bell St, Wigston.

To register for MyAccount or to view our online services visit www.oadby-wigston.gov.uk.

Community Response Plan

Over the past 12 months, the Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland Resilience Partnership has been working hard to encourage local communities to become more resilient.

Experience shows that communities that are able to help themselves fare better, recover more quickly and are ultimately stronger. With this in mind, the Partnership has been working with local people to create Community Response Plans, which bring together a group of residents and/or community leaders who can assess the situation and agree how best to respond - limiting the impact on their community.

The Partnership are pleased to say that the Oadby Resilience Team have now completed their new Community Plan, and will shortly be receiving delivery of their 'community store', which includes lots of useful equipment that they will be able to put to good use if an incident does happen.

“A Community Response Plan for Oadby seems such a good idea. It is good to know that if something did happen here the community could help itself until the professionals arrived.”

Jo Knight, Oadby Resilience Team

If your local community would benefit from creating a plan, please contact llrprepared@leics.gov.uk.

Are you ready for a power cut?

As winter approaches, have you thought about how ready you are for a power cut? Despite the best efforts of our utility suppliers, severe weather can have a huge effect on the services we take for granted.

When Storm Desmond brought unprecedented flooding to Lancashire and Cumbria in December 2015, a flood at an electricity substation resulted in a blackout affecting more than 100,000 residents. It took nearly a week before the situation was back to normal, during which time:

- Most phone coverage was lost within an hour, and although most landline phone services were available, many people found their cordless phones wouldn't work
- Most internet service was lost but even where it was available in the street, electricity was not available to supply Wi-Fi hubs
- Electronic card payment systems and most ATM machines did not work
- The local TV booster station lost power which also affected digital radio (DAB) services
- Multi-storey buildings lost power for the lifts and some upper floors lost water supplies
- Electrically-powered special aids and medical appliances were affected
- Shops, schools, petrol stations and other businesses were forced to close
- Traffic lights didn't work
- Many people had no heating in their homes – even gas central heating won't work without electricity, and were unable to prepare hot food without their electric cookers, microwaves and kettles

Oadby & Wigston Borough Council has plans in place to deal with incidents like this. However, it is important that individuals and communities are also prepared to help themselves. Visit www.llrprepared.org.uk today for advice on preparing for emergencies.

Grow your own fruit and vegetables

If you enjoy gardening and would like to grow your own fresh fruit and vegetables then an allotment could be just what you're looking for!

All kinds of people enjoy allotment gardening for lots of different reasons. It is a rewarding pastime which could make a massive contribution to your wellbeing and quality of life.

Apply for an allotment

There are four allotment sites across the Borough;

- Brabazon Road, Oadby
- Wigston Road, Oadby
- Manchester Gardens, Wigston
- Aylestone Lane, Wigston.

We operate a waiting list for allocation of a plot but the wait for plots on the Aylestone Lane and Wigston Road sites is quite short at the moment and so you are encouraged to apply as soon as possible.

To apply for a plot at one of our four locations you can log on to www.oadby-wigston.gov.uk/allotments and complete the application form online, or telephone 0116 288 8961 and ask for a form to be sent to you by post or email.

Only residents living within Oadby, Wigston or South Wigston can apply for an allotment in the Borough. If you live outside of the Borough then please contact your local Council about allotments in your area.

Winter work in the woods at Brocks Hill

At Brocks Hill Country Park, winter is a busy time. We have been thinning the trees in the woodland compartments to promote healthy growth from the remaining trees and create space for other woodland plants to grow.

The Forestry Commission have issued a felling licence to thin the woods: trees to be removed are those that have poor growth, are unhealthy, or growing too close to a tree we want to keep. It can look destructive when the thinning is being carried out, but it is an essential management technique for young woodlands.

By removing a proportion of trees, more sunlight can reach the ground, providing areas for wildflowers to grow and habitats for many insects. Thinning will also enable a diverse range of tree and shrub species to grow throughout the compartments, improving biodiversity. There are already tiny oak, ash and maple seedlings growing amongst the larger trees.

With the help of the conservation volunteers, we will make use of the timber by creating stakes to use in the park, woodchip for the muddy paths and log piles for wildlife. We ask that all visitors please leave log piles undisturbed, as they are a valuable habitat for invertebrates, fungi, small mammals and birds.

Raising money for DLRAA at Motor Fest

On Sunday 13 August, Anne Bond held a raffle at Oadby's annual Motor Fest event, to raise money for the Derbyshire, Leicestershire and Rutland Air Ambulance Service (DLRAA).

Organised by Sam Gutteridge of Epic Accessories, the classic car festival was a huge success, with thousands flocking to The Parade to see the very best vintage cars, and many local businesses taking part.

Thanks to the support of local residents and visitors at the Oadby Motor Fest, Anne Bond was able to raise £104 for the DLRAA service.

"I wish to thank all residents in the Borough for helping us to keep our helicopter flying so we can continue saving lives across Leicester and beyond."

Anne Bond.

Community Safety Partnership Strategic Plan 2017-2020

Every three years the Oadby & Wigston Community Safety Partnership is required by law to produce a Strategic Plan setting out its Community Safety Priorities for the next three years, and the approaches it will take in achieving them.

In October 2017 the Partnership approved, and adopted, its Strategic Plan for 2017-2020 which is now available to view on the Council's website.

It is the intention of the Partnership to be transparent and fully accountable to our community in its workings, and the publication of its Strategic Plan, as a blueprint for its work over the next three years, underlines this commitment.

The Strategic Plan demonstrates how the Partnership supports the 2017-2021 Police and Crime Plan developed by Lord Bach, Leicestershire's Police and Crime Commissioner, and has incorporated the outcomes of this plan into its own seven, viable strategic priorities.

Beneath each strategic priority sit a number of tactical actions that will be reviewed annually to better suit the needs of the community, and are a mixture of proactive and reactive approaches to reducing crime, disorder, and anti-social behaviour in the Borough, as well as improving community safety for all. These tactical actions are fully detailed in the Partnership's annual Delivery Plans which are also summarised on the Council's website.

To view the Partnership's Strategic and Delivery Plans please visit www.oadby-wigston.gov.uk/pages/community_safety_partnership.

Health and wellbeing

Help doctors and nurses treat you quicker in an emergency.

Consent to have an 'Enhanced Summary Care Record' at your GP practice today.

Patients living in Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland are being encouraged to share more information about their health and preferences to help doctors and nurses treat them by consenting to an Enhanced Summary Care Record.

Most patients in England currently have a 'core' Summary Care Record, which makes limited information from a patient's GP record - current medications, allergies, and bad reactions to medicines - electronically available to other health professionals.

Now, health and social care leads across Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland are recommending that all patients consent to an 'Enhanced Summary Care Record'; which can also include details of illnesses and health problems, past operations and vaccinations, treatment preferences, information about the kind of support needed, and who should be contacted if more information is required.

Consenting to an 'Enhanced Summary Care Record' means patients can receive better, quicker care if healthcare is needed away from their usual GP surgery, such as in an emergency, on holiday, when their normal surgery is closed, at hospital clinics and when visiting a pharmacy.

Kim Marshal-Nichols, Chair of The Hedges Medical Centre PPG, said: "As patients it is frustrating to have to repeat our stories every time we have an appointment. I think it is a very good idea to consent to an 'Enhanced Summary Care Record'."

Over 40,000 patients have signed up to share more information across the NHS in Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland, and the rate at which patients are consenting has also shot up.

Dr Andy Ker, Clinical Vice-Chair at East Leicestershire and Rutland Clinical Commissioning Group said: "It's really pleasing that more patients are signing up for an Enhanced Summary Care Record.

"Doctors and nurses treating you in hospital do not routinely have access to your GP medical record. By consenting to an Enhanced Summary Care Record you can help us treat you quicker and more effectively. Completing the form will only take a couple of minutes but it could end up saving your life."

The information will be managed securely in line with the NHS Care Records Guarantee. The Record will only be accessed by doctors and nurses if consent is provided by the patient, unless they are unconscious or unable to communicate and they believe that accessing the record is in the patient's best interest.

For more information speak to your GP Practice, or log onto <https://digital.nhs.uk/summary-care-records>.

Completing the form will only take a couple of minutes but it could end up saving your life.

New facilities for Parklands and Brocks Hill

An exciting new partnership between Oadby & Wigston Borough Council and Everyone Active will see new developments to the facilities at both Parklands Leisure Centre & Brocks Hill Visitor Centre this winter, as part of a £1.2 million investment.

Brocks Hill Visitor Centre

Work is underway to create a large activity area, with a sprung wooden floor and improved lighting.

Brocks Hill are also redecorating their café and making some other minor improvements around the centre.

It is hoped that these improvements will increase both the participation at the Centre and community awareness of the service, which will focus on a larger range of activities and education.

Parklands Leisure Centre

As part of the improvements to Parklands Leisure Centre, we will be installing some brand-new indoor facilities, including a soft play area and adventure climbing walls, scheduled to open in February 2018.

Featuring slides, foam ball shooters, trampolines and more, the soft play area will be a monster 4 level structure with something for children of all ages.

The adventure climbing walls will be a mix of fun, colour and challenging climbs – a great introduction to climbing, as well as fantastic fun for parties.

“These improvements at both Brocks Hill Centre and Parklands Leisure Centre will be wonderful additions to already popular and successful facilities, meaning this will be a real focal point and a family destination for unique and exciting activities for people in the Borough and beyond.

This ‘leisure village’ appeal will increase participation and help to achieve a healthier community, which we can all be proud of.

The commitment of the Oadby and Wigston Council to continually support and make improvements to the local facilities is testament to their desire to make the Borough a healthier and happier place to live”

James Naylor, Parklands Leisure Centre Manager.

What's powering your kids?

At Food for Life, they believe that every child has the right to enjoy healthy, tasty and sustainable food, to learn about where the ingredients come from, how they are grown and cooked, and to understand the importance of well-sourced produce.

Working with over 150 schools across Leicestershire, Food for Life has presented over 70 Bronze, Silver or even Gold Awards to schools who have helped pupils to reconnect with where food comes from.

The Food for Life School Awards scheme encourages schools to grow their own food; organise trips to farms; source food from local producers; hold community food events; provide cooking and growing clubs for pupils and their families and serve freshly prepared food from local and ethically sourced ingredients.

Getting children interested in 'good food'

Teaching children to cook is so important. It equips them with the skills and knowledge to lead a healthier life now and in the future, and it has been shown that pupils in Food for Life schools are twice as likely to eat their five-a-day than pupils in comparison schools.

You can find out if the schools in your local area are involved in Food for Life by going to <http://www.foodforlife.org.uk> where you can also download our pack for parents about how Food for Life could benefit a child and their school.

Schools currently involved in Food for Life

News from your local societies

History of our street names

Did you know that Cottams Close off Newton Lane, Wigston was named so after a factory which stood on the site previously?

The Civic and Historical Societies of Wigston are interested in finding out why our streets are named as they are, and so are carrying out a project to identify the stories behind the street names in our areas.

In some cases the name of a street has changed over the years with the old name being lost, a good example would be Freehold Lane which is now Granville Road off Leicester Road. The societies would also like to hear about any nicknames for streets or locations in Wigston and the reasons for themes of names on more modern estates.

If you think you can help with their projects, please email Helen on hrhay@outlook.com or call 07813 782899.

Hedges overhanging the footpaths

Wigston Civic Society is campaigning for action to be taken about privately-owned hedges that overhang footpaths. This is a serious problem which can often result in pedestrians having to walk on the road to get by.

The Society has already had some success in their campaign, but if you know of an example where overhanging hedges are causing a problem, please get in touch on chairman@wigstoncivicsociety.org.uk or phone 07702 127313.

Rotarians with tabards

Oadby Rotarians with tabards, bin bags and picker sticks volunteered to clear the London Road in Oadby from the A6 traffic lights to St Peter's Church.

Club members wanted to show their support for the "Pride in the Borough" Group entry in the national "Britain in Bloom" competition. So with eight bags full of weighty rubbish they joined forces with the Oadby & Wigston Borough Council refuse collection cart.

It was a case of 'brothers in arms' as the friendly crew offered to take on board all the bags and save the volunteers a trip to the local tip.

Wigston history website

The Greater Wigston Historical Society has a recently revamped website containing a wealth of information about the Society and the area around Wigston.

As well as pages about the history of Wigston, the new site has:

- Several archives of information, documents, articles
- Copies of all the Society bulletins issued since 1980
- An index of the photographic archives, containing currently over 6,000 historical photographs

There is also a section of unidentified photographs which, when identified, will be added to the ever-growing database. Members access is free, and non-members can request up to three copies per year of the documents or photographs.

The site contains full details about the Society monthly meetings with guest speakers, and the several outings they run each year to places of historical interest.

The Society, founded in 1980, now has well over 100 local members. To join visit:

Open Hearts support group

As most parents of special needs young people will know, it can often feel isolating and you may struggle to discuss the issues and problems that occur seemingly every day. Your children may have trouble 'fitting in' with their mainstream peers, usually due to a lack of understanding and poor coordination.

'Open Hearts' is a youth group set up by parents of special needs youngsters to help support those who generally struggle with abilities, skills, understanding and making new friends, and their parents. They will be working with qualified youth workers, alongside other groups, such as Step Out youth group, when it is thought to benefit the young people.

A parent or carer will also be on site to give parents a sounding board to discuss any concerns or problems they may have with others who understand. Through group discussion it is hoped that parents will leave Open Hearts better equipped and with new, supportive friends. Open Hearts meets at Elliott Hall, Albion Street, South Wigston, LE18 3SA on the following dates:

- Wednesday from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.
- Saturday from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Mayor's Civic Service

On Saturday 21 October, the Mayor, Councillor Samia Haq held her Civic Service at Oadby Mosque and Community Centre, Sandhurst Street, Oadby, with representation from the Jewish, Hindu, Sikh and Christian communities in the Borough who each read a prayer of their own.

The service was about love, peace and living in harmony and all the prayers from the different religious groups reflected the same message. Two groups of children took part in the service, children from Beauchamp College read a poem and two of Samia's own children and a friend from the Muslim School sang a hymn.

The event was attended by over 100 people and amongst the guests were Lady Gretton, Lord Lieutenant, Councillor Rashmikanth Joshi, Lord Mayor, Councillor Janice Richards, Chairman from Leicestershire County Council and representation from other local councils.

The event raised over £200 for the Mayor's charity which is the Leicester Children's Hospital. The Mayor will be fundraising throughout the year to raise money so they can continue with the tremendous work they do in providing care for poorly and special needs children.

Pride of the Borough

Community Bulb Planting

Over the past four years members of Pride of the Borough have joined forces with individuals, clubs and societies and have planted more than 25,000 bulbs in verges, parks and open spaces in our Borough.

This autumn we held a special community event when we planted 4,000 daffodils in William Gunning Park, South Wigston and were ably assisted by members of Oadby Launde and Oadby Rotary clubs. The bulbs were purchased through funds raised from the Pride of the Borough Membership card, and volunteers from around the Borough planted the bulbs.

We are looking forward to a splendid colourful display of daffodils in spring 2018, along with the 10,000 purple crocuses, which were planted last year in this park.

Blooming achievements

It has been another golden year in the East Midlands in Bloom campaign, with Oadby & Wigston achieving its 8th consecutive Gold Award. The judges were enthralled with all they saw during their visit in July, and particularly the community activities and spirit shown. They were so impressed in fact that the Borough was awarded 96% in that section of the criteria, an almost unheard of high mark.

Oadby and Wigston has also been on the national stage representing the East Midland region in the prestigious Britain in Bloom competition. A team from Pride of the Borough travelled to Llandudno, Wales, at the end of October where Oadby and Wigston was awarded a Silver Gilt Award in this competition.

Bloom co-ordinator for Pride of the Borough, David Carter, said "To be one of the top 74 entries is an honour, to walk away with a Silver Gilt is a tremendous achievement and reflects on the hard work of so many volunteers working in partnership with officers and staff from Oadby & Wigston Council. We hope the residents of our Borough can be proud."

These achievements added the icing on the cake at the 'end of season awards and celebration evening', held on October 30, where the winners of the annual Floral Displays Competition received their certificates and trophies in front of a packed hall of friends, councillors and supporters.

Oadby & Wigston Community Safety Partnership

The Oadby & Wigston Community Safety Partnership is comprised of a range of organisations who work together to make the Borough a safer place to live, work, and visit.

These organisations, including Leicestershire Fire and Rescue Service, Leicestershire Police, and Oadby & Wigston Borough Council, recognise that by combining resources, experience, and knowledge, the Partnership can offer an enhanced approach to tackling issues and concerns in the Borough, and offer a greater level of value for money within the work it undertakes or commissions.

The Partnership is committed to listening to your views so we can improve our services, and tackle the concerns that are most important to our community. To do this the Partnership undertakes a survey each year designed to provide guidance on where its resources, and focus, would be best placed for 2018/19, as well as allowing its component organisations an opportunity to understand and assess the impact their current work has had on crime, anti-social behaviour, and safety within Oadby, Wigston, and South Wigston.

Results from last year

Last year's survey showed us that your most important concerns were 'Littering and Fly-Tipping', 'Groups causing Nuisance', and 'Vandalism and Graffiti', each of which were incorporated as priorities into the Partnership's delivery plans for 2017/18.

The survey also found that the majority of respondents (57%) felt 'Very Safe' or 'Safe' in the Borough, whereas only 13% of respondents felt 'Unsafe' or 'Very Unsafe'. The Partnership is very keen to see if this statistic has continued, or improved, over the last 12 months, alongside hearing from our community about emerging concerns and how the Partnership can improve your outlook on life in the Borough.

How to take part

If you wish to take part in this year's survey you will find a copy of its questions overleaf, including details on how to ensure your feedback reaches the Partnership.

Alternatively you may wish to complete the online version of the survey that can be found, alongside more information on the Partnership, on the Council's website: https://www.oadby-wigston.gov.uk/pages/community_safety_partnership.

This survey is open to anyone who lives, works, or studies in the Borough, as well as anyone who routinely visits the Borough, and will remain open until midnight on Wednesday, 31 January 2018.
